Miss Doris Lovings returned Friday evening from Lawrence, Kansas, where she is attending Kansas University. She reports the following pupils who were graduates from Summer High School attending the university: Franklin Bradley, Payne Ransom, Willie Tower, Nathaniel Wheeler and Miss Naima Johnson. Miss Lovings returned to Lawrence Monday morning.

The Citizens Forum held its annual opening in the Metropolitan Baptist Temple, Sunday, September 17. The program was best, probably in its history. It was indeed a musical and literary treat. The president, Mrs. W. Diggins, presiding, opened the forum in her usual graceful commanding manner and in her opening remarks insisted upon the forum making a concrete showing during this year's work; place itself upon record and show that it could do something tangible; that it is merely a place to display literary talent but a place for racial uplift.

Prof. Kealin's address "Filling the bill" was deeply interesting, instructive and practical. In conclusion he suggested that measures be taken toward obtaining information of social, industrial and general conditions of Negroes. The forum at once decided to act and a committee of five was appointed to draft an outline to be followed in securing statistics of the Negroes' general conditions in Kansas City, Kansas, as this is necessary in attempting any kind of general movement to improve the Negroes' general condition. Following is the program rendered September 17:

Musical, . . . . . Inter City Band. Invocation, . . . . . Rev. Albert Browne. Questions—Forum; Current Events

Miss Ruth Bradley. Solo, . . . . . Mrs. S. C. Capp. Instrumental Solo, . . . . . Miss Ella Neeley. Address, . . . . . Prof. J. J. Neeley. Instrumental Solo, . . . . .

Miss Beulah Douglass. Critic's report, . . . . . Mr. J. C. Truman.

ARGENTINE, KANSAS.

By Mrs. Ophelia Jackson. Leo Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, is convalescent after a very severe attack of pneumonia. Little Martha DeVault is improving after a recent illness. The Sacred Concert given at St. Paul A. M. E. Church on last Sunday evening by the Choir and Choral society was very good and largely attended. Miss Thelma Watts of Kansas City sang "Oh Perfect Day," which was well received. Several visitors attended the concert, among them Mrs. H. A. Watts and Mrs. Mable Carpenter of Kansas City, Mo. Rev. Harris left for Lawrence Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of Rev. Brooks. He will go from there to Wichita to attend the annual conference. The report for the year for St. Paul A. M. E. Church was read Sunday night, September 24. Every department of the Church showed an increase over previous years and over $1,500 was raised throughout the year. Mr. Archie Elliott, who fell from a building a few weeks ago and was severely injured, is able to be out. A very enjoyable and indeed a surprise party was given by the choir and choral society of St. Paul for Mrs. Ophelia Jackson at their residence on Barber avenue Thursday evening. It was quietly gotten up and was a surprise in every respect because Mrs. Jackson had no idea of it at all. The evening was spent very pleasantly. A program was rendered consisting of a solo by Miss Thelma Watts, solo by Dr. Davis, solo by Elmer Jackson, instrumental solo by Mrs. Jackson, and choruses by the choir. A repeat of ice cream and nut caramel cake was served and at 11 o'clock they departed for home, happy that the surprise was highly appreciated by their directress. A birthday party was given for her husband, Mr. H. D. Austin, by Mrs. Austin on last Tuesday evening at their residence on 37th and Barber avenue. Many friends congratulated Mr. Austin and wish him many happy returns of the day.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

Dr. Southern preached a great sermon last Sunday morning to a large congregation. The Sunday school held a very interesting session last Sunday. Dr. Wm. H. Thomas delivered a fine funeral oration at 3:30 P. M. over the remains of the late Mr. Commodore who was killed by blows from a club in the hands of a police officer. Last Tuesday evening Mr. John Mitchell, Jr., member of the American Bankers' association and editor of the Richmond Planet, delivered a grand lecture to a large audience in this auditorium. The B. Y. P. U.'s held interesting sessions last Sunday evening. In the evening Dr. Southern again delivered a fine discourse. During the past week there were 19 additions to the church.

Mr. Roland W. Bruce left for Ann Arbor, Mich., the 25th, to enter the Conservatory of Music.
